Subject: Communication with the Clerk's Office

Follow Up Flag: Follow up
Flag Status: Flagged

Any request to expedite or delay an action in a case should be accomplished by formal action rather than by ex parte communication with the clerk's office. Nor is there any need to provide the clerk's office a "heads up" if you anticipate filing a request to expedite or delay an action. Such requests impact the due process rights of other parties and may be construed as ex parte communication with the court.

Thank you for your attention to this matter. Please let me know if you have any questions.
